Thanks, this is a very comprehensive document. The only question/comment I have is:

- P 6: "Full range of ratepayer benefits should be considered"- should Demand Reduction Induced Price Effects (DRIPE) be included in the list?

Look forward to the final version,

NECPUC Retail Demand Response Working Group Stakeholders:

The Working Group is now inviting comments on its draft final report. You can access the draft through the Working Group's website, or directly via this link.

Please send your comments to info@necpuc.org by 5:00pm EDT on Friday, March 27. A final version of the report will subsequently be published, taking into account any comments which are received.

We look forward to your feedback and appreciate your participation in the Working Group's activities to date.

Best wishes,
George Twigg, on behalf of the working group
